IS YOUR MUM THE MOTHER OF THE YEAR?

The AFL Players' Association and the Kangaroos Network of Women (KNOW) are pleased to announce the third annual 'Mother of the Year' will be chosen from nominations provided by the Players through the Players Association. The award will be presented at the Mother of the Year Cocktail Party on Thursday 10 May 2007.

The award is open to ALL CLUBS. In 2006 the award went to Libby Wakelin, mother of Shane (Collingwood) & Darryl (Port Adelaide).

Criteria

The Mother of the Year will:

- have been involved with her son's football career from the beginning and still takes an active role*
- have given 100% commitment and loyalty to her son's career, her family and her chosen football club*
- have met the challenges, obstacles or adversity placed before her and risen above the obstacles*
- have a passion for grass roots football*
- Show a spirit that is inspirational to those who know her and have belief that with teamwork great things can be achieved.*

To nominate your mum for the Players Mother of the Year Award, please complete the following form and return to the AFL Players Association by Friday 20th April 2007.
